

Contact Languages: Homage to the Late Professor Philip Baker

25 March 2020, 9.20am - 6.00pm

SOAS, Room R201 (2nd floor main building), 10 Thornhaugh St, London WC1H 0XG

Programme:

- 09:20 Welcome & Introduction: Lutz Marten (SOAS, London) and Shihan de Silva (ICwS, London)
- 09:30 Magnus Huber (Giessen), "Evidence of contact languages in the Proceedings of the Old Bailey, 1674-1913"
- 10:10 Angela Bartens (Turku), "Language making and ownership from the perspective of writing creoles"
- 10:50 Break
- 11:00 Mario Pinharanda Nunes (Macau), "Macau Portuguese Creole (Makista) at the crossroads of the Asian Portuguese Creoles"
- 11:40 Robert Laub (SOAS, London), "The Genitive in Malacca Portuguese Creole and Luso-Asian Creoles"
- 12:20 Lunch (own arrangements)
- 13:20 Shihan de Silva (ICwS, London), "Sri Lanka Portuguese: Survival on the Margins"
- 14:10 Carla Figueira (Goldsmiths, London), "The politics of Portuguese and Creole in Guinea-Bissau"
- 14:50 Break
- 15:00 Violet Cuffy (Bedfordshire), "Dominica Creole"
- 15:40 Melanie Green (Sussex) and Gabriel Ozón (University of Sheffield), "Cameroon Pidgin English: Insights from a spoken corpus"
- 16:20 Silvia Kouwenberg (University of West Indies), "The distribution of African-origin lexicon across semantic domains in Caribbean Creole languages"
- 17:00 Roundtable Discussion
- 17:30 Conclusion

Organised in collaboration with the School of Oriental and African Studies, University of London

Registration: Standard £10 | Students/unwaged £7

<https://modernlanguages.sas.ac.uk/events/event/21633>