WG Hart Legal Workshop 2017
Law, Society and Administration in a Changing World
10-11 July, 2017
Institute of Advanced Legal Studies, 17 Russell Square, London WC1 BDR

Generously sponsored by the Society of Legal Scholars

Programme

Monday 10 July, 2017

8.30 am  Registration, Coffee and Welcome

9.00 am  Control and Controllers of Administrative Power
Sophie Boyron, (Birmingham Law School)
Mediation in French Administrative Courts
Robert Thomas (Manchester Law School) and Joe Tomlinson (Sheffield Law School)
Tribunals and Administrative Review in UK Administrative Law
Discussion
Guillermo Jiminez Salas (University College, London)
The Chilean Comptroller and Legal Review of Rule-Making
Richard Kirkham (Sheffield Law School)
Ombuds as a Bellwether of Administrative Cultures
Discussion

11.10 am  Break

11.40 am  The Development of German Control Regimes
Michael Stolleis (Max Planck Institute for European Legal History, Frankfurt)
The German 'Sonderweg' Controlling the Administration
Peter Collin (Max Planck Institute for European Legal History, Frankfurt)
The Emergence and Differentiation of Control Regimes in Germany from the Early 19th Century
Discussion

1.10 pm  Lunch

2.00 pm  Procedures and Interest-Protection
Carol Harlow (London School of Economics) and Richard Rawlings (University College, London)
Administrative Procedure as a Technique for Control and Accountability
Robert Siucinski (University of Lodz)
Development of Control Over Administrative Power
Discussion
Yseult Marique (University of Essex)
Collective Interests in Classic Administrative Law
Catherine Warin (University of Luxembourg)
Protecting Interests Through Rights
Discussion

4.00 pm Break

4.20 pm Modelling Administrative Law Regimes
Swati Jhaveri (National University of Singapore)
Common Law Administrative Law Archetypes
James Fisher (University of Tokyo)
Administrative Law in Japan
Discussion

5.30 pm Drinks Reception

7.00 pm Conference Dinner

Tuesday 11 July, 2017

8.30 am Coffee

9.00 am European Administrative and Control Regimes
Paul Craig (University of Oxford)
Shared Administration, Direct Administration and the Complex Nature of Administrative Accountability in the EU
Filipe Brito Bastos (European University Institute)
The Judicial Crafting of EU Executive Federalism
Veronika Fikfak (University of Cambridge)
Damages for Human Rights Violations
Discussion

10.40 am Break

11.00 am Global Administrative Governance and Control
David Law (Washington University Law and Hong Kong University)
Craig on Global Administrative Law
Gianluca Sgueo (New York University, Florence)
Converging Methods of Administrative Governance
Discussion

12.20 pm Lunch

1.20 pm Administrative Law and Presidential Power in the US
Jerry Mashaw (Yale University)
Presidential Administration in a Regime of Separated Powers
Peter Strauss (Columbia University)
American Administrative Law under the Presidency of Donald Trump
Discussion
2.40 pm  Break

3.00 pm  Controlling Changing Patterns of Administrative Power
Aileen Mc Harg (University of Strathclyde)
Relative Autonomy or Relative Irrelevance?
Tom Mullen
Remedies and Institutions for Control of Administrative Power in the UK
Colin Scott and Rebecca Schmidt (University College, Dublin)
Administrative Discretion and Regulatory Capitalism
Discussion

4.40 pm  Concluding Reflections
Peter Cane (Christ’s College, Cambridge and Australian National University)

5.00 pm  End of Workshop