

Making 'Digital Streets' Safe?
 Progress on the Online Safety Bill

Programme

	27 March 2023
13.30 – 14.00	Registration and coffee
14.00 – 15.30	Panel 1: Recent policy developments Baroness Stowell of Beeston MBE Member of the House of Lords Professor Lorna Woods OBE Professor of Internet Law, University of Essex Graham Smith Of Counsel, Bird & Bird Discussant Matthew Feeney Head of Technology & Innovation, Centre for Policy Studies Chair Dr Nóra Ní Loideain Director and Senior Lecturer in Law Information Law & Policy Centre Institute of Advanced Legal Studies, University of London
15:30 – 16.00	Coffee break

16:00 – 17:30	Panel 2: Human rights and oversight Professor Paul Bernal Professor of IT Law, University of East Anglia ‘Online Safety and Freedom of Expression: Seeing the bigger picture’ Dr Michael Veale Associate Professor Faculty of Laws, UCL ‘Dangerous, Magical Thinking: Client-Side Scanning and the Online Safety Bill’ Dr Martin Husovec Assistant Professor of Law LSE Law School ‘Digital Freedom of Expression: Lessons from the EU’s Digital Services Act’ Dr Edina Harbinja Reader in Law School of Law, Aston University ‘Key amendments to improve the Online Safety Bill’ Discussant Mark Johnson Big Brother Watch Chair Dr Nóra Ní Loideain Director and Senior Lecturer in Law Information Law & Policy Centre, Institute of Advanced Legal Studies, University of London
17:30 – 18:30	Reception and networking