

The book in the Low Countries

New perspectives, hidden collections

21-22 June 2017
Wolfson Conference Suite
Institute of Historical Research

INSTITUTE OF HISTORICAL RESEARCH

SCHOOL OF ADVANCED STUDY
UNIVERSITY OF LONDON

Flanders
State of the Art

With support of the Scaliger Institute and the Government of Flanders

Wednesday 21 June 2017

09:00am

09:40am

09:45am

Session 1

Low Countries Collections

11:00am

11:30am

Session 2

International book history projects

12:45pm

2:00pm

Visit 1

4:00pm

Visit 2

6:00pm

Registration & Refreshments

(outside Wolfson Room I- IHR)

Welcome

Stijn van Rossem (Institute of Historical Research)

Chair: Raphaelae Mouren (Warburg Institute)

Dutch Books in London Libraries - Early beginnings and future perspectives

Reinier Salverda (UCL and Fryske Akademy)

The collection of the Dutch Church library: an expression of an Anglo-Dutch identity?

Catherine Wright (University of Oxford)

Break (Wolfson Room II)

Chair: Kasper van Ommen (Scaliger Institute)

*The pricing strategy for books published by Jan Moretus I (fl.1589–1610) and his successors at the Officina Plantiniana
in the first half of the 17th century*

Goran Proot (University of Udine)

*The Archaeologies of Reading in Early Modern Europe:
enter John Dee*

Jaap Geraerts (UCL)

Lunch (Wolfson Room II)

British Library

Show and tell by curator— Marja Kingma

Lambeth Palace Library

Visit of the collection with Librarian and Archivist—

Giles Mandelbrote

Conference dinner

Boat to Greenwich and then dinner in a pub

Wi-Fi information

Wednesday 21 June 2017

Network: UoL Conferences

Password: berdia

Thursday 22 June 2017

09:45am

Visit 3

11:30am

Visit 4

12:30pm

1:00pm

Session 3

Printed ephemera

2:45pm

3:00pm

Session 4

People of the book

4:45pm

Dutch Church

Visit of the library

Senate House Library

Show and tell of the Elzevier collection by curator—

Karen Attar

Lunch (Wolfson Room II)

Chair: Giles Mandelbrote (Lambeth Palace Library)

A Provincial Newspaper in an Urban Setting. Reprints of the Gazette van Antwerpen in the Dutch Republic

Steven Van Impe (Erfgoedbibliotheek Hendrik Conscience)

Ephemeral Politics. State Publications in the Dutch Golden Age

Arthur der Weduwen (University of St. Andrews)

The forgotten cousins. Elzevier family members in The Hague, 1590-1665

Erik Geleijns (Museum Meermanno)

Break (Wolfson Room II)

Chair: Elizabeth Savage (Institute of English Studies)

X-Ray Fluorescence as an analytical tool for studying the copper matrices in the Plantin- Moretus Museum collection

Patrick Storme (Universiteit Antwerpen)

The women of the Bellère family and the making of a printing dynasty in Douai (1593-1711)

Heleen Wyffels (KU Leuven)

"Printed in London? No, not really. A London publisher and his imports from the Netherlands"

Marja Smolenaars (Koninklijke Bibliotheek)

Conference Reception

(Wolfson Room II)

Wi-Fi information

Thursday 22 June 2017

Network: UoL Conferences

Password: nansti

For further information contact:

Institute of Historical Research
Senate House
Malet Street
London
WC1E 7HU

Email: ihr.events@sas.ac.uk

Follow us on:

@ihr_history
@ihr_events

facebook.com/ InstituteofHistoricalResearch

history.ac.uk