

Aspects of Exile

This series of lectures, organised by the Research Centre for German & Austrian Exile Studies, at the University of London's Institute for Modern Languages Research, cover a broad range of topics relating to Exile in Britain, including art and sculpture, design, literature, film and theatre, dance, the internment of aliens and the Kindertransport. The lecturers all have a strong interest in German-speaking exile from Nazism, and have published widely in their respective fields.

Lectures take place at the University of London, Room 243 Senate House, Malet Street, WC1E 7HU. Attendance free; advance online booking strongly recommended (see link for each lecture).
