BRAZIL AND SPANISH AMERICA: RELATIONSHIPS AND COMPARISONS

Institute of Latin American Studies, School of Advanced Study, University of London

1st March 2019

10.00-10.15 Opening remarks: Leslie Bethell

10.15 -11.30 Historical Perspectives (Chair Mark Thurner, ILAS)
1. Brazil's Exceptionality: The Absence of a Latin-American Discourse During the Brazilian Empire's Crisis. Mariana Guimarães A. da Silveira Federal Fluminense University
2. “Brazil and Latin America” Revisited: Entangled Histories and Regional Spaces in the Period of Modernisation. Ori Preuss (Tel Aviv University) and João Paulo Rodrigues (Universidade Federal do Rio de Janeiro)

11.30-12.00 Coffee

12.00-1.15 Historical and Regional Perspectives (Chair Antony Pereira, Brazil Institute)

1.15-2.00 Lunch

2.00-3.30 State Formation: Regional and Global Perspectives (Chair Alan Charlton, Robin Humphreys Fellow, ILAS)
7. Conservative Press and Portuguese-Brazilians Identity, a Different Path? Guilherme Celestino, King’s College London

9. Rethinking Brazil and Spanish America. Anthony Pereira, Brazil Institute, Kings College London.

3.30-4.00 Tea/Coffee

4.00-5.00 Cultural Comparisons (Chair Linda Newson, ILAS)

11. Brazilian Studies and Latin American Studies: Common Points and Counterpoints. Vinicius Mariano de Carvalho, King’s College London

5.00 Concluding remarks: Leslie Bethell

5.30 Reception